

Written Patient Complaints

DJO is committed to ensuring that our patients' experience with us is a favorable one and the company has dedicated resources to help ensure that written patient complaints are handled in a timely manner. When DJO's Patient Advocate receives a written patient complaint, the patient will receive acknowledgement of that complaint within five (5) calendar days of receipt. Within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt, the patient will receive written notification of the investigation and a final determination on the complaint.

Written complaints can be emailed to the attention of:
Lorie Seybert, Patient Advocate at
Email: Corporate.Compliance@DJOglobal.com
