

DJO Incorporated's Encore Medical Division Announces Name Change to DJO Surgical

Name Change Reflects DJO's Mission to Provide Enhanced Total Joint Health

SAN DIEGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--DJO Incorporated, a global provider of medical devices that provide solutions for musculoskeletal health, vascular health and pain management, today announced that in conjunction with the merger with ReAble Therapeutics in late 2007, the name of its Encore Medical business unit has been changed to DJO Surgical. Encore Medical is a global supplier of reconstructive total joint implants for the hip, knee and shoulder.

"Our mission at DJO is to improve the quality of life of the people who use our products, whether they are trying to prevent injuries or rehabilitate from surgery, injury or degenerative disease," said Les Cross, CEO. "Encore Medical exemplifies our mission and has done an excellent job building its surgical business through a dedicated team of professionals that are committed to excellence from new product development to customer service.

"The name change to DJO Surgical will enable us to leverage the DJO brand, especially the distinguished history of the DonJoy brand name that is so familiar to orthopedic surgeons. By providing surgeons and patients with turnkey solutions from joint implants to pain management systems to rehabilitation products, we can enhance the overall physician and patient experience. DJO Surgical will enable us to build upon this total-patient approach to the market."
