DJO Global Announces Brady Shirley as New President of Surgical Division

SAN DIEGO, CA, March 6, 2014 – DJO Global, Inc., a global provider of medical device solutions for musculoskeletal health, vascular health and pain management, today announced the appointment of Brady Shirley as the new President of DJO Surgical, a division of DJO Global Finance LLC, effective immediately.

Mr. Shirley has more than 20+ years of experience in the Orthopaedic industry in a variety of roles, including most recently CEO of IMDS (Innovative Medical Device Solutions); an organization that provides comprehensive product development, manufacturing and supply chain management solutions for medical devices companies.

Prior to IMDS, Mr. Shirley held several key leadership roles, spanning 17 years at Stryker, which include the President of Stryker Communications and Senior Vice President of Stryker Endoscopy. At Stryker Communications and Stryker Endoscopy Mr. Shirley was responsible for all domestic operations and P&L for the Communications division, as well as Global product development and Sales & Marketing for Endoscopy, representing approximately $1B worldwide.

“With DJO Surgical’s current market position and growth potential; brand momentum, innovation and market leadership are our most urgent priorities”, said Mike Mogul, DJO Global’s Chief Executive Officer and President. “Brady’s strong Orthopedic background and proven track record and ability to develop and lead top performing teams, drive shareholder value and innovation will support the outstanding team we already have in place to transition DJO Surgical to the next level.”

Mr. Shirley will be at the DJO Global booth at the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons (“AAOS”) meeting next week in New Orleans and can be contacted at brady.shirley@djoglobal.com.
