Founded in Chattanooga, Tennessee, by local athletic trainer Lee Jensen and his business partner Jack Walker, the Chattanooga Group began life as Chattanooga Pharmacal Company.

- 1947: Chattanooga entered the hot and cold therapy market with the introduction of the Hydrocollator® Moist Heat HotPac®.
- 1948: Released the first motorized traction system, the TX® Traction Unit.
- 1958: Launched the first Intelect® device, the Intelect® 200 ultrasound unit.
- 1977: Introduced the Triton® MP-1 Traction System.
- 2002: Chattanooga Group acquired by Encore Medical, which became the world's largest physical therapy, orthopedic, and chiropractic product manufacturer.
- 2004: Released the new Triton DTS® Traction Therapy System.
- 2006: Released the first Intelect® High Power Laser*
- 2007: Introduced the world's first wireless muscle stimulator.
- 2008: ReAble acquired Saunders® and Iomed®, along with their home traction and iontophoresis ranges.
- 2011: ReAble merged with DJO, a leading orthopedics company.
- 2012: Mobile RPW Shockwave®, ARTROMOT® Active-K launched.
- 2014: Vectra Neo™ Therapy System, Galaxy Tables launched.
- 2015: HUBER® 360, Revolution Wireless®, VitaSorm® Plus launched.
- 2016: Chatt Tape, PULS portable electrotherapy range (Physio, Theta, Rehab), Intelect® High Power Laser, Intelect® Focus Shockwave launched.
- 2017: Mobile 2 RPW Shockwave®, 6M Triton Table, ARTROMOT®–S4 Shoulder CPM I-Bressis launched.
- 2018: Introduced the first Intelect® RPW Shockwave, Montane Tables launched.